The Democratic National Committee appointed the Democratic Victory Task Force to examine the last several election cycles and solicit actionable ideas from the entire Democratic family on how to improve the long-term strength of the national Democratic Party. The Task Force identified a set of recommendations in a preliminary report.

The Task Force is continuing to meet on a regular basis with plans to release a strategic plan in May. The strategic plan will include initiatives that can be tested in 2015 and implemented in 2016 and beyond.

Members of LA's delegation to the Democratic National Committee will be in attendance at our meeting to listen to your ideas and forward your input to the Task Force.

We hope that you will plan to join us and share your ideas as your suggestions and feedback are a very important part of this strategic planning process.
